8 RECOGNIZING TUBBTOWN, ALABAMA.

9
10 WHEREAS, tucked in the rolling hills of the 11 Northwest Corner of Sweet Home Alabama, hard by the mighty
12 Tennessee, deep and blue, lies a parcel of Eden, 13 affectionately known by its inhabitants as Tubbtown; and

14 WHEREAS, Tubbtown is bound by the strong horses of 15 Iron on the North and the former country lane referred to in 16 its early existence as Wilson Dam Road on the East, now State
17 Route 133, a wide and long patch of asphalt moving traffic
18 rapidly through the heart of the Shoals area; and

19 WHEREAS, on the South, Tubbtown is surrounded by the 20 former glistening fields of white gold, the cotton fields of 21 home, which boast the flourishing homesites of many residents 22 of the city, one of whom exemplifies the true nature of the 23 bucolic land of which is herein spoken; commonly called the 24 "Compound," it is bordered by an expanse that remains fully 25 unexplored; and

26 WHEREAS, the described area has constituted as the 27 lifetime home of the Tubb girls, as well as their parents and

1 grandparents; it is duly noted that the described area shall 2 forever be known as Tubbtown to all who set foot or plant 3 their roots thereon; and, those who cherish the memories of 4 the past and the hopes of the future, shall be blessed for 5 having resided therein; now therefore,

6 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF 7 THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That the area of property herein
8 described shall be designated as Tubbtown, though not a city 9 or a town, but as a serene and peaceful spot to be enjoyed and 10 maintained by all who may hereinafter share it.
